

SATIN FACIAL

1) *Set the mood . . . play soft, spa music, i.e. rainforest, oceans, etc. (*Offer an herbal tea for sipping. *Soften and slow your voice . . soothing, relaxing

2) The Facial . . .Begin with the customer doing a slow inhale/exhale . . . 3x's.

*Remove eye make-up with OF eye make-up remover and cotton pads.

*Use a facial cleansing cloth to remove surface dirt and oil

*Apply Extra Emollient Night Cream over entire face (could substitute OF Hydrating Gel or Intense Moisturizing Cream).

*Apply a MASK from Classic line . . . (formula #1 works for everyone).

*Apply appropriate TW Cleanser (yes, right over the top)

*Apply Satin Lip Mask Apply 2 (preferable thick, white, fluffy) damp, warm wash cloths, one over top half of face and the other on the bottom half of face, leaving space for her nose. As she is relaxing under the warm cloths, have her do the inhale/exhale for 3 more X's. Have her do a few forward shoulder rolls and a few backward rolls. This helps to alleviate stress in the shoulders and neck and adds to the relaxation factor. The white, fluffy cloths add to the "spa" atmosphere.

*Remove all cleaners, masks, etc. with warm face cloths. OOHHH!

*Apply Satin Lip Balm

*Use Hydrating Freshener in a spray bottle and gently spray her face.

*Apply Day Solution to her face. (If she is planning to go home to bed, use Night Solution.

*Apply Indulge Soothing Eye Gel *Apply Firming Eye Cream

*Apply TW Moisturizer (or appropriate night cream). Her facial is complete. If she is going out, do a light glamour look such as Dash Out the Door--Vanilla Eyesicle, mascara, blush, lip gloss.

*Finale--have her sample the Microdermabrasion products on one hand--she will love it.

Girls, this is the "recipe" for our Satin Facial night.

Use this as a check list to get together the products you need for your guests.

